8. Breanna mentions that she went to an election meeting. They discussed that there were 149 new election judges for the county of which all were republican. Roosevelt Township has 6 of them. If you want to be an election judge and get preference over the others, you must sign up on mnvotes.org. The township pays for election training, not the county. And the county is back to normal voting for polling places as it was in 2020. This didn't affect Roosevelt Township.
9. Open Forum:
